

Dinesh Sharma is the founder and also the Chairman-cum-Managing Director of the company and carries rich experience in corporate management. He has served Electronic Systems Punjab Ltd in software development for banking institutions for more than 3 years at the beginning of his career. He also had a stint of 2 years of core software development experience with Punjab Alkalies and Chemicals Ltd and in 1990, he started Simplex Infotech Services. His entrepreneurial skills motivated him to foray into computing hardware and networking. OST Electronics Ltd was formed in 1994 and from a mere 5 employees, today the company is growing with contributions from 79 invaluable people.

Dinesh Sharma takes pride in recognizing the skillset resources value in Team OST and hence the bonding of people with their responsibilities are at its best. He holds Post Graduate degree in Statistics from the reputed Panjab University and has a number of certifications in his capacity as the top management professional from reputed institutions. Widely travelled across the globe, he holds a matured hand in driving the company for achieving set goals.